THE CONVENTION IS APPARENTLY DEADLOCKED

NEW YORK BREAKS IN CLARK'S FAVOR

Tammany Gives Champ 90 Votes on Tenth Ballot and Enables Him to Increase His Lead Over All Candidates—

170 Short of Necessary Two-Thirds—Balloting

Continues at an Early Hour This A. M.

CONVENTION RECESSES

At 3:15 the Convention after taking the 12th ballot without nomination took a recess until 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Baltimore, June 29.—Giving up all attempt to break the existing deadlock the leaders in the Democratic party at 3:05 o'clock this (Saturday) morning decided upon an adjournment until 1 o'clock in the afternoon in the hope that some sort of agreement might be reached as to a Presidential nominee.

Many of the delegates protested against the delay caused by the adjournment, but apparently there was no hope of settling the nomination by conference on the convention floor. Twelve ballots were taken. Champ Clark made a sensational gain on the 10th when New York's solid block of 90 votes went to him. On this ballot Mr. Clark's total reached a high-water mark of 556—a clear majority, but 170 votes short of the necessary two-thirds to nominate. On the 11th and 12th ballots Clark fell away to 554 and 549.

Governor Woodrow Wilson held his forces steadily together and during the night's voting there were but slight fluctuations in his totals. Votes lost in some delegations were made up in others. Mr. Wilson's last total was 354.

Governor Harmon on the last ballot dropped to 21 votes, cast by members of the Ohio delegates. New York's desertion brought the Ohio executive rapidly down.

The long night and early morning session was marked by several noisy demonstrations. The first came from the Clark adherents when New York shifted to the Speaker. Then came a counter demonstration from the Wilson people when 10 Wilson delegates from Oklahoma declared they would not be "dragged into Tammany Hall."

The New York vote cast by Mr. Murphy was nearly always greeted with mingled hisses and cheers.

Leaders in the convention viewed the situation with some concern when the night session was adjourned. The Clark strength seemed to have been fully tested and he was still far short. Governor Wilson did not make the gains that his managers expected. There was a report at adjournment tonight that the New York delegation had agreed to vote for Clark only on three ballots, giving the Speaker a full opportunity to display his greatest strength.

It also was said that New York next would go to Underwood. This will serve as a further test of the ability of Wilson to hold his votes. If he continues to do so New York eventually may go to him. The Clark people assert they have sufficient "rock-ribbed" votes to prevent the nomination of any other man.

The situation was apparently as badly mixed as ever and the thousand delegates fled from the convention hall shortly before day break this morning to seek a little rest before going on with the struggle in the afternoon.

Baltimore, June 29.—A sensational break in the New York delegation gave that State's 90 votes to Champ Clark on the 10th ballot in the Democratic National convention this morning, carried the Speaker to a total of 556 out of the 1,088 delegates, but still left him 170 short of the two-thirds vote necessary to a choice.

The balloting was continuing at an early hour this morning with the Clark forces outwardly confident and the Wilson managers doggedly claiming that the final "break" would come to the New Jersey Governor.

Story in Detail. Baltimore, June 28.—A general understanding that a nomination would be made before the adjournment of tonight's session of the Democratic convention filled the galleries long before the regular hour for the calling of the convention. The heat was terrific and the delegates discarded their coats and wilted collars.

At 9:30 the aisles were in great confusion and the police and the sergeants-at-arms tried in vain to clear them. Chairman James called the convention to order at 9:42. Gradually the disorder subsided and the Rev. George F. Dudley, of Washington, offered prayer.

Chairman James at 9:48 directed the calling of the roll for the sixth ballot. The call proceeded without change of incident until Kansas was reached. The delegates and spectators half expected a break in Wilson's favor, following the roll call today which showed the Kansas vote at 11 for Wilson and nine for Clark. But the instructions holding them to Clark until two-thirds of the delegation believed him beaten held the State in line and its 20 votes were cast for Clark.

In Michigan Kern and Wilson each lost one to Harmon.

A hubb of expectation settled over the hall when New York was called, but Charles F. Murphy as usual announced: "New York casts 90 votes for Harmon."

In North Carolina Wilson lost one to Underwood. Harmon lost one in Ohio. It went to Bryan who was thus restored to the roll. It became apparent then that there would be no nomination on the sixth ballot. This was assured when New York did not shift to either of the leading candidates.

In Tennessee which cast its vote differently on each ballot, Wilson gained four and Clark 2. All of the six came from the Harmon column. Nebraska corrected her vote giving Wilson 4, Clark 12, a gain of one for Wilson.

The total of the ballot showed little change from the preceding vote. The result was: Clark 445; Wilson 354; Underwood 121; Harmon 135; Marshall 31; Kern 1; Bryan 1.

Compared with the fifth ballot this showed gains of two votes for Clark and three for Wilson.

Underwood's vote was the highest so far polled for him. He gained one-half over the last ballot. Harmon's vote was the lowest he has received, 6 1-2 less than he had on the fifth ballot. Marshall's 31 remained constant. Kern lost one vote and Bryan received a single vote.

Immediately the seventh roll call was ordered.

There was no change until Connecticut was reached. After asking to be passed, the vote was finally stated, showing losses of one each for Clark and Wilson and a gain of two for Underwood.

While the roll call was proceeding a circular denouncing Wilson was distributed among the delegates. A Wisconsin man from New Jersey protested and the distribution was ordered stopped. It took a squad of police to stop it, and for a few minutes trouble seemed imminent. But the disorder was quieted and the roll call proceeded.

In Michigan Harmon lost one to Wilson. New York's 90 again went to Harmon.

In Ohio Wilson gained one; Clark gained two and Harmon lost three.

The wabbling Tennessee delegation shifted again. Clark gained 3 1-2; Wilson lost 2 1-2; Underwood gained 12; and Harmon lost 1 1-2.

The result of the seventh ballot was: Clark 443 1-2; Wilson 352 1-2; Underwood 123 1-2; Harmon 129 1-2; Marshall 31; Bryan one, Kern one.

The changes were immaterial. The chair announced no nomination and the roll call was begun for the eighth time.

The first change in the eighth ballot came in the vote of Michigan. Harmon lost one of his three votes from the previous roll call, the one vote going to Underwood. Clark gained one vote from Wilson in Nebraska, the first change in the vote between the two leading candidates.

In North Carolina Wilson gained one and Underwood vote. In Ohio Wilson lost one and it placed Chairman Ollie James on the roll. Tennessee made another change of its vote.

Clark lost two; Underwood lost 1-2 vote, Harmon gained 1-2 vote and Mayor Gaynor secured one vote, the first cast for him.

The eighth ballot result was: Clark 448 1-2; Wilson 351 1-2; Underwood 123; Harmon 130; Marshall 31; Bryan 1; Kern 1; Gaynor 1; James 1.

The changes from the seventh ballot were: Clark lost one, Wilson lost one, Underwood lost half a vote, Harmon gained half a vote.

Gaynor and James were added to the list with one vote each.

The announcement of the vote was followed by the start of the ninth roll call at 11:25 o'clock.

There was no change in the line-up until Michigan gave Harmon a gain of two, Clark and Underwood each losing one. New York's 90 stayed with Harmon and again it was certain there would be no nomination.

PLATFORM BRISTLES WITH PROGRESSIVE PRINCIPLES

Democracy's Document for Coming Campaign Completed and Now Awaits Approval of Presidential Nominee—Bryan a Prominent Factor in Framing It—Summary of Main Planks.

Baltimore, June 28.—Bristling with Democratic progressivism, the platform on which the Democratic party will stand during the approaching campaign was completed late today by the Committee on Resolutions and awaits only the approval of the Presidential nominee to be presented to the convention.

The document is the result of 48 hours of deliberations on the part of the committee. It is an almost entirely new document, although the recommendations of the New York delegation was followed in many particulars.

From the first to the last the committee's deliberations were characterized by the utmost harmony. The unanimous demand was for the most progressive policies and the only differences of opinion arose over the best method of expressing this tendency.

The result of a platform of generally advanced views, although many of them are less radical than the party declarations of other years. The document covers every subject of importance of present duties especially upon the subject of the tariff.

The members of the committee express general satisfaction with the outcome of their vote and Mr. Bryan who took the most active part in framing the paper, made the prediction that it would arouse the approval of not to exceed a dozen members of the convention.

Under the new rule adopted the platform will not be presented to the convention until after the nomination of the candidates.

Its submission will follow the selection of a Vice Presidential candidate.

The following is a summary of the planks of the Democratic platform:

Reaffirms party's devotion to the principles of Democratic government as formulated by Jefferson.

Declares a tariff for revenue and denounces the high Republican tariff as the principal cause of the unequal distribution of wealth.

Favors immediate downward revision of present duties especially upon necessities of life. It also favors gradual reduction so as to interfere with or destroy legitimate industries.

Denounces President Taft for vetoing tariff bills of the last Congress. Condemns the Republican party "for failure to redeem its promises of 1906 for downward revision." Takes issue with the Republican platform as to the high cost of living, contending it is largely due to high tariff laws. Favors vigorous enforcement of the criminal features of an anti-trust law. Demands such additional legislation as may be necessary to crush private monopoly.

Favors prohibition of holding companies, interlocking directors, stock watering, etc. Condemns Republican administration for compromising with Standard Oil Company and tobacco trust.

Denounces as "usurpation" the efforts of Republicans to deprive States of their rights and to enlarge powers of the Federal government.

"There is" says the platform, "no twilight zone between the Nation and the State in which exploiting interests can take refuge from both."

Urges people to support proposed constitutional amendments, pending in various State Legislatures, providing for an income tax and election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. As justification of the demands of the party for publicity of campaign expenditures, attention is directed "to the enormous expenditures of money in behalf of the President and his predecessor in the recent Presidential contest."

Favors efficient supervision and rate regulation of railroads, express companies, telegraph and telephone lines and a valuation of these companies by the Interstate Commerce Commission and also legislation against over-issuance of stocks of these corporations.

In connection with a demand for such revision of the banking laws as will give temporary relief in case of financial distress, there is a denunciation of the Aldrich bill prepared by the Monetary Commission. The method of depositing government funds is condemned and the party is pledged to the enactment of a law for the deposit of such funds by competitive bidding in State or National banks without discrimination as to locality.

Recommends investigation of agriculture credit societies in Europe to ascertain whether a system of rural credits may be devised suitable to conditions in the United States.

Pledges party of enactment of legislation to prevent devastation of lower Mississippi Valley by floods and the control of the Mississippi is declared to be a National, rather than a State problem.

The maintenance of a navigable channel is also recommended.

Declares for Presidential preference primaries. Directs the National Committee to provide for selection at primaries of members of National Committee.

Pledges party to enactment of law prohibiting campaign contributions by corporations and unreasonable campaign contributions by individuals.

Favors single Presidential term and making President ineligible to re-election.

Felicitates Democratic Congress on its record, enumerating important achievements, and pledges an adequate navy.

Denounces Republican administration on charge of extravagance and demands return to simplicity and economy befitting a Democratic government.

Favors National aid regarding post roads.

Repeats party's declaration of the platform of 1908 as to rights of labor and pledges the party to an employees compensation law.

Declares the unnecessary withdrawal of public land tends to retard development and bring reproach upon policy of conservation; that reservations should be limited to purposes which they purport to serve; favors broadest liberality in administering land laws and says forest reserve act permitting homestead entries within the National forest should not be nullified by administrative regulations; declares for immediate action to make available Alaska coal lands and safeguarding of lives of miners. Favors encouragement of agriculture and legislation to suppress gambling in agricultural products.

Believes in fostering growth of a merchant marine and urges speedy enactment of laws for greater security of life and property at sea.

Reaffirms previous declarations regarding pure food and public health.

Favors reorganization of the civil service and says law should be honestly and rigidly enforced.

Recommends law reform legislation. Reaffirms position against "policy of imperialism and colonial exploitation" in Philippines.

Welcomes Arizona and New Mexico to sisterhood of States.

Demands for Alaska full enjoyment of rights and privileges of territorial form of government.

Refers to Russian treaty of 1832 and renews pledge to preserve "sacred rights of American citizenship at home and abroad."

Favors parcels post and extension of rural free delivery.

Favors encouragement as can be properly given Panama Canal Exposition.

Commends to the States adoption of law making it offense to discriminate against the uniform of the United States.

Renews declaration of last platform regarding generous pension policy.

Refers to the rule of the people, and says: "The Democratic party offers itself to the country as an agency through which the complete overthrow and extirpation of corruption, fraud and machine rule in American politics can be effected."

The conclusion of the platform says: "Our platform is one of principles which we believe to be essential to our National welfare, and invites co-operation of all citizens who believe in maintaining unimpaired the institutions of our country."

Early Convention Story. (By W. P. M. Turner.) Baltimore, June 28.—Tonight at 12 o'clock the convention appears to be in a tight deadlock with no prospect of being broken in the early ballots.

The hall is crowded, but owing to the strictness of the officers the thousands who gained admittance last night without any credentials were barred tonight. It is estimated that between 20,000 and 25,000 were in the hall last night.

There is a wonderful change in the convention now from this time last night. Then pandemonium reigned while during the two ballots just cast unusually good order has prevailed and almost no cheering when the ballot is announced. The seventh ballot shows considerable gain for Clark as gains now go, while Wilson showed his first loss since balloting began, but even then it was small. All predictions and forecasts as to what would occur on certain ballots have proven incorrect and even the most astute politicians declare tonight that there is no telling what the end may be.

Wilson and Clark forces both fear such a deadlock that neither can be nominated and there continues to be talk of Kern, but there are many who do not think him of Presidential size. There is no doubt but he would have the unequalled support of Bryan and certain Bryan followers, numbering in the hundreds, it is declared tonight, are ready to try to force through the Commons. Today the crowd in the city dwindled considerably and regardless of whether the convention is over or not, thousands will leave tomorrow.

The crowd has not been as large as expected and early in the week it was generally understood that sessions would be strung out so as to run through Friday, members of the National committee having no idea there would be such real danger of a deadlock.

Bryan has not been heard from tonight, but after the startling move made last night, the convention would not be surprised for him to take the floor on probably some point of order almost any time. His brother is down with the press.

No Nomination on Ninth. Baltimore, June 28.—A monotonous succession of roll calls brought no nomination in the Democratic convention late tonight when the sweltering delegates were still answering the droning voice of the reading clerk.

The results of the roll call up to the ninth were discouragingly similar. None of the leading candidates made any material gains or losses. There was no change of more than six votes in the totals up to that time.

The steady gain of the Wilson vote had culminated with a count of 354 on the sixth ballot. On the seventh Wilson lost 1 1-2 votes.

Bryan, Kern, Ollie James and Mayor Gaynor, of New York, each received one or two votes in the course of the balloting. Harmon lost slowly, but steadily from his 148 of the first ballot. Underwood gained a trifling amount. The leaders of the various factions hurried about the hall. The air was full of rumors of "deals" and "trades." A shift that would throw a deciding vote to one candidate or another was looked for on every ballot by some of the delegates while others expected an all night session.

Convention Hall, Baltimore, June 28.—The convention hall again became a center of animation toward 3 o'clock in expectation of the decisive struggle ahead. Quite a number of delegates were early in place despite their strenuous labors of the night. The galleries began to brim with a fluttering mass of humanity, promised a record crowd exceeding that which held frenzied carnival throughout the night. The sultry weather brought out many women in pretty white gowns, their fluttering fans adding to the color and animation of the vast encircling galleries.

Representative Stanley, of Kentucky, of steel investigation fame, and Senator Martine, from New Jersey, were among the early arrivals. They band early took up its part in the enlivenment, intermingling patriotic airs with good old Southern melodies.

Cheers greeted the arrival of Chairman James at 4:11 o'clock. The gavel fell just one minute later.

Rev. Henry M. Wharton, pastor of Brantley Baptist church of Baltimore, offered prayer in part as follows:

"We have reached the time in the history of this convention when of all others Thy wisdom is most needed."

"The affairs of our government seem about to pass to other hands and will it please Thee that they may accept the tremendous responsibility and discharge the trust that shall be given unto their hands with sincerity and with conscientious performance of duty. We pray Thee that Thou wilt guide the counsels of this hour in the selection of a candidate for the Presidency of our great country and that Thou wilt give to us a man who fears God, who is guided by His word and whose heart turns in sympathy to the great multitudes who daily toil for their living and for those dear to their hearts."

"Wilt Thou give us a man who will guide our ship of State out from the icebergs of greed and selfishness into the high seas of prosperity. May the clouds which have darkened our skies pass away and the muttering thunder of discontent be heard no more forever."

The prediction of Democratic success met with approval expressed in an outburst of applause after the conclusion of the prayer.

Chairman James at 4:18 announced that the roll call for the Presidential nomination would be resumed at once. Several minutes were required to clear the floor and restore order.

Alabama was the first State called and applause greeted the announcement from Governor O'Neal that Alabama casts 24 votes for Oscar W. Underwood.

No changes from the first ballot early today marked the call at the outset. Arizona, Arkansas, California and Colorado cast their solid votes for Speaker Clark as they had done on the first ballot.

Connecticut again cast its 14 votes

for Governor Baldwin, its "favorite son."

Wilson enthusiasts in the galleries applauded the first voice cast for their candidate, that of Delaware.

The banners dropped from the balcony during the Wilson demonstration early this morning still blazoned forth their mottoes: "We want Wilson" and "Wilson all the time, no compromise."

Other States continued to follow the first ballot. No changes occurred in the poll as the vote proceeded through the list of States until Massachusetts was reached.

Here one vote broke away from Clark, who had received the entire delegation of 36 on the first ballot and went to Wilson.

Michigan, whose vote had been distributed among four candidates on the first ballot asked to be passed when its name was called. A conference was in progress among the delegates in the Michigan section.

Another break of one vote from the Clark to the Wilson standard came in the New Hampshire delegation. The Speaker received seven and Wilson one on the second ballot where he had received eight on the first ballot.

The accession to the Wilson strength while small, was greeted with a storm of applause from Wilson sympathizers. A break of two delegates from Underwood came in the New Jersey delegation. Two given Underwood on the first ballot went to William Sulzer, of New York, on the second.

In North Carolina Governor Wilson lost 1-4 of a vote. The first ballot had given Wilson 16 1-2, the second gave him 16 1-4.

Clark and Wilson gained a vote each in Ohio, while Governor Harmon lost one.

The change of a nomination on the second ballot vanished when the Ohio vote was cast.

This brought up the total opposition to Clark to above the one-third mark, making it impossible for Clark to secure the necessary two-thirds of the convention.

Pennsylvania threw one more vote to Governor Wilson and gave one to Bryan, reducing by two the vote given Governor Harmon. The Pennsylvania figures on the second ballot were: Wilson 72; Bryan 1; Harmon 3.

Eight votes went to the Wilson standard and wild cheers when Vermont vote was called.

The vote had gone to Governor Baldwin of Connecticut, on the first ballot.

A half vote was gained by Wilson in Utah; and a half vote by Clark in Virginia, the latter breaking away from Underwood's vote of 14 1-2 on the first ballot.

Clark gained one more in Wisconsin. One member who was absent when the first ballot was taken cast his vote with Clark.

Two Alaska votes cast for Sulzer on the first ballot, joined the Wilson strength on the second call.

The Michigan delegation gave two votes to Clark and one to Wilson, taking them from those given Harmon on the first ballot.

Clark gained two halves more in Tennessee, while Harmon lost a half vote and Underwood lost three.

In the Porto Rico delegation Clark gained one that had been cast for Underwood, thus dividing the delegation with Governor Wilson.

A further revision of the Tennessee vote was made before the final vote was counted. Governor Wilson gaining an additional half vote by it. A half vote was recorded as "not voting."

The result of the second ballot was: Clark 446 1-2; Wilson 359 3-4; Underwood 111 1-4; Harmon 141; Marshall 31; Baldwin 14; Sulzer 2; Bryan 2; not voting half.

STARVED TO DEATH ON SHIP
Stowaway Pays Life as Price of Passage to America
(Special to Washington Post).
New York, June 27.—The body of a man who paid his life as the price of a passage to America was found in the hold of the steamship Francesco Clappa, lying at Erie basin, Brooklyn, today.

When longshoremen began unloading the ship they came upon the body of the stowaway, who had starved to death while stealing his way to America. The body was terribly emaciated, weighing less than 100 pounds.

The man was a Spaniard, and evidently had gone on board the ship when she sailed from Seville, Spain.

FREIGHTMEN'S STRIKE ENDS
Railroad Employees, After Nine Weeks, Agree to Resume Work
Chicago, June 27.—The freight handlers' strike, which began nine weeks ago and affected 25 Chicago railroads and nearly 4,000 men, was settled today, according to an announcement made by Chairman Joseph F. Ryan, of the special administrative committee named by Mayor Harrison to carry on negotiations in the interest of peace.

An offer of the railroads to take back 1,500 of the strikers at once and provide places for the others as soon as conditions made it possible was accepted.

White Plains, N. Y., June 28.—No testimony was taken in the Thaw hearing during morning session. Instead Supreme Court Justice Keogh, upon whom rests the responsibility of determining Thaw's sanity, had a conference with counsel for both sides. It is thought possible that a commission will be appointed to decide the case.

Washington, June 27.—William Marshall Bullitt, of Louisville, will be named by President Taft to succeed Frederick W. Lehmann, of St. Louis, as solicitor general of the United States, according to a cabinet officer who talked today with the President. Baton Rouge, La., June 28.—The State of Louisiana today through action of the Legislature, went on record as approving the income tax amendment to the constitution of the United States.

BOY BATHER DROWNED
Jumps Into Water Fifteen Feet Deep, Though Unable to Swim
Richmond, Va., June 27.—Charles Watson, aged 13 years, son of J. H. Watson, of this city, was drowned at Buckroe Beach this afternoon while bathing. Young Watson, who could not swim, jumped from a diving board 15 feet deep, and in falling his stomach struck the water with terrific force, which, it is believed, rendered him unconscious. Before assistance could reach him he had gone down for the last time.

Mrs. Watson was on the beach, and was prostrated when she learned of her son's death.

The body was recovered, and was brought to Richmond tonight. The boy was a member of the Broadus Memorial Baptist Church Sunday School, which ran an excursion to the beach today.

We are informed that they hauled in this week a nice large lot of upholstered parlor goods, such as couches, lamps, beds, safes, three and five-piece parlor suits, some of them in two-tone silk plush. These people are handling a reliable line of goods and offering every inducement to the purchasing public.

WOMEN CALLED LAWLESS

Assailed by Mrs. D. T. S. Dennison For Attack on Butchers
San Francisco, Cal., June 27.—The surprise of today's session of the 11th biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs was the declaration from the platform of Mrs. Dimas T. S. Dennison, of New York, honorary president of the federation, "that lawlessness among women has arisen."

"Our greatest danger," said Mrs. Dennison, "is from the uneducated and unassimilated. In my own city I have seen women who could not understand when prices rose that it was not the butchers who were responsible. They stormed the butcher shops, beat down the stalls, and poured kerosene on the meat."

New clubs enrolled in the last two years and new members not included in the State federations were given, respectively, 254 and 17,572.

Mrs. John C. Hessler, of Decatur, Ill., spoke of women's clothes and criticized tight skirts, high heels, and "picture hats."

Mrs. A. E. Guldin, of Fort Wayne, Ind., speaking on "Our Problems in Civilization," said that women for the first time in history found themselves in moral competition with men.

Baroness Bertha von Suttner, for 30 years a leader in the world peace movement, arrived from Vienna tonight. She will speak to the delegates July 4th on "Peace."

London, June 27.—At the international horse show at Olympia today Judge W. H. Moore's Menella and Phyllis were placed second in class 32 for tenders over 14 and not exceeding 15 hands. Satire and Baronet, belonging to J. Sumner Draper, of Boston, were placed third in the same class.

Judge Moore's Burgomaster and Robin Hood won the blue ribbon trophy for harness horses for the championship, which had taken first or second prize at this show—Judge Moore's Menella and Phyllis were placed second.

White Plains, N. Y., June 27.—That a proposition has been made to the attorneys in the Thaw case by Superior Court Justice Keogh looking toward a change in the manner of the conducting it, was apparent today when the session was given over entirely to conferences between Justice William T. Jerome, special counsel for the State, and Clarence J. Keogh, chief counsel for Thaw. What change is contemplated none of the principals would say. It seems likely, however, that Judge Keogh wishes to call in alienists of his own choosing, as it is taken to be a foregone conclusion that three of the six alienists now concerned will say he is not. It is also thought that Judge Keogh might desire to have Thaw taken out of Mattawan and confined in Bloomingdale asylum or elsewhere for one or two months so that he may be watched by a commission named for the purpose.

Tomorrow morning it is expected Judge Keogh will make known his decision as to what shall be done.

HAL CHASE ASKS DIVORCE.

Will Fight Against Wife's Demand for $300 a Month.

Philadelphia, June 27.—Hal Chase admitted today that he had brought suit in New York against his young wife, Nellie H. Chase, for divorce. The Chases were married in San Jose, Cal., June 1, 1909.

"Even before I thought of bringing suit," said Chase today, "my wife and I were estranged. We separated as early as last Fall, and the separation was satisfactory. Then I learned of her misconduct and have never gone near her since."

"I should prefer not to have the affair aired in court, and will make an effort to compromise on my wife's demands. I am willing to make suitable provision for her, but I will fight against her demand for $300 a month. I have not decided yet what action I will take. That is a subject that must be decided by my attorney."

Tobacco Test Farm Location—Requisition for Man Wanted in Kentucky—Historic Scenes in North Carolina.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., March 28.—The question as to the location of the tobacco test farm that the State Department of Agriculture is to establish for the benefit of the growers of the bright tobacco belt of the Piedmont section of the State, is to be settled at the September meeting of the test farm committee of the board.

The committee has inspected the farms offered at Kernersville, Forsyth county; at Durham, at Oxford and at Reidsville, and a Forsyth delegation has been given a special hearing in which they urged that this farm is located on a splendid automobile highway, is accessible to all the surrounding tobacco growing section to the Virginia border, and that the soils on this farm are well adapted for the tests that the State Department desires to make.

On the other hand, the advocates of the other farms in Durham, Granville and Rockingham counties are to be heard at convenient seasons, while the committee is awaiting the analysis of the specimens of soils that have been taken from the several farms. These are being made under the direction of Dr. B. W. Kilgore, State chemist, who is director of the State test farms.

N. B. Ashe, of Jenkins, Ky., was here today and procured from Governor Kitchin a writ honoring a requisition from the Governor of Kentucky for E. B. Carnes wanted in Boyd county, Ky., for passing bogus checks. He is in jail at Hamlet awaiting extradition. He was a teamster for the Consolidated Coal Co., of Jenkins, a large corporation, and passed checks at a number of places in that county, signing them "Consolidated Coal Co., E. B. Carnes, Manager." In some instances he represented himself to be connected with the company in various other important capacities.

The State department of insurance notified Deputy Commissioner W. A. Scott that he has just procured the binding over to court of Robert Shutt, charged with burning a store in Catawba county. The store belonged to George Roberts.

The lantern slides of historic places, incidents and persons in North Carolina history to be shown in the patriotic effort of the North Carolina Society, Daughters of the Revolution, have been received here and a party of ladies and gentlemen interested in the movement gathered last night and witnessed their initial presentation in the auditorium of the Raleigh High School building. Every one was delighted, pronouncing the collection especially creditable and remarkably extensive. Other slides are to be added as they can be gathered. The pictures have been especially prepared for the Daughters of the Revolution. A very fine instrument has been procured and arrangements are to be made for one and another competent persons interested in such work to visit the schools throughout the State and exhibit them to the school children and parents, too, for that matter, as they are including in the program and see them. Also individual schools or counties can procure slides and instruments and use the slides for the purpose. There are sure to be a great educational factor in the history of the State and in the presentations of places and people of interest. The pictures start with Sir Walter Raleigh, pass on to the famous White paintings of Indians and their wild life on the Carolina coast, then to the coming of the first settlers, Virginia Dare, incidents and battles of the Colonial and Revolutionary periods, including a representation of the reading of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence from the steps of the Mecklenburg court house, famous battles and monuments and tablets that have been erected. There are reproductions of a number of the noted North Carolina paintings by Jacques Bushong. The pictures are views of historic Salem and of Edenton and of Wilmington, all of which are quite creditable and of great historic interest.

Miss Mary Hilliard Hinton, regent of the North Carolina Society, has been especially active in getting up this presentation of Historic North Carolina, and she is being heartily congratulated for the success of her undertaking.

KINSTON AFFAIRS.

Hookworm Campaign to be Taken Up in Jones—New Garage.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Kinston, N. C., June 27.—Dr. T. E. Hughes, of the State hookworm commission, will open the campaign of eradication in Jones county on Saturday, the work to be extended to Anson 2nd in that county. Dispensaries will be held at Trenton, Mayville and Pollockville and at two other points. Dr. Hughes has just completed the work of hookworm treatment in Duplin county, where 3,000 people were examined.

The Kinston Garage Company will move into its model new building, on Gordon street, in a few days. The exterior of the structure is now completed, and the actual operation of the repair, sales and storage departments of the plant will begin as soon as the equipment can be installed. It is claimed that this, the third garage to be opened in Kinston, is the finest building and plant of the kind in eastern Carolina, if not in the State.

EX-JUDGE MONTGOMERY.

Eminent Jurist of State Passes Away at Concord, N. C.

Concord, N. C., June 28.—Ex-Judge W. J. Montgomery, for many years one of the leading lawyers of this section of the State, died at his home here this morning, after an illness of several months. Judge Montgomery was 78 years of age and is survived by his wife and nine children, Mrs. E. C. Register, of Charlotte; Mrs. J. H. Wilber, of Lancaster, S. C.; Dr. J. S. Montgomery, of Charlotte; and Messrs. James J. B. Sherrill, J. D. Lentz and Miss Shirley Montgomery and Messrs. Richmond, William and George Montgomery of this city. The funeral will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Central Methodist church.

IN FAVOR OF CLARK

A gain of one for Wilson. Underwood lost a half and Harmon three. Again the "no nomination" announcement was made and again the roll call was begun. In Michigan Clark gained four, Wilson and Harmon each lost two. Then came Charles F. Murphy's voice: "New York casts 81 for Champ Clark."

The rest of his announcement was lost in the uproar that swept the hall. The Clark people with a yell leaped to their chairs and a demonstration was underway.

Misouri's standard left its place. Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas and Kentucky fell in behind and the parade around the hall began.

Up in the band stand the band blared forth "Tammany", and the uproar increased. Half a dozen Clark banners appeared and soon the aisles were filled with a struggling mass of yelling enthusiasts. The parade became a rout. The District of Columbia, Maryland, New Mexico, New York, California, Colorado, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Nevada, Washington and Illinois standards swung into the wild scramble.

Some one tried to tear the Massachusetts standard out, and a struggle followed. The struggle began to look serious and the standard was forced back into place. But a few minutes later it appeared in the parade.

Meantime the New York standard had been rushed to the stage and raised high above the yelling mob.

The other standard bearers tried to scale the stand and several of them gained it. But two police barred the way and after a near fight the bearers were held back. Charles L. Geraghty, of St. Louis, who carried the Rhode Island banner, had a fight with a policeman and was driven from the stand. The tumult increased as the parade again took to the aisles.

The "Hoin' Dog" song by the band aroused another outburst. The Clark leaders went into the crowd and tried to quiet them so that the vote might go on, but with little success.

The demonstration continued for 21 minutes. Then Murphy again announced New York.

"Eighty-one for Clark, one for Underwood, eight for Wilson."

"New York votes under the unit rule," announced Chairman James, and under the unit rule casts 90 for Clark." Another outbreak followed.

In North Carolina Wilson gained one at the expense of Underwood. In Ohio Wilson lost two to Clark.

A Clark man in the Oklahoma Wilson delegation wanted the delegation to go and under the unit rule cast 90 for Clark. "We were instructed for Wilson with Clark as second choice," began, "and we think Clark will be the one." He got no further.

"Alfalfa Bill" Murray, of the Wilson end of the delegation, leaped to his feet. "This delegation is in two parts," he said. "Ten for Clark and ten for Wilson."

"We have polled the Wilson end of the delegation and it stands as it did at home. We always had two Clark men among us. We do not intend to be dragged into Tammany Hall."

"Alfalfa Bill" could not go on, for a Wilson demonstration got underway at once.

When the Wilson demonstration had been underway for some time, Wilson Jennings Bryan, accompanied by Mrs. Bryan, entered the hall. He went at once to the section occupied by the Nebraska delegation and Mrs. Bryan went to the stage. The demonstration continued as she appeared and laughingly waved her greeting to the yelling throng.

Bryan's face bore a look of determination as he took his place with the Nebraskans.

The delegates crowded about him demanding counsel, but he ignored them. He gazed at the wild disorder about him and talked with Samuel W. Untermyer, of New York, counsel for the Money Trust Investigating Committee, who hurried to him.

Later Bryan moved to the seats of the Oregon delegation and this led to the belief that when that State was recorded in the count the Wilson end would endeavor to secure recognition to make a speech. A big crowd of delegates crowded around him, cheering wildly.

The Wilson demonstration then had been underway 25 minutes and Chairman James sought in vain to quiet the tumult.

The demonstration had been underway 25 minutes when Senator James sent the sergeant-at-arms through the aisles. This had little effect for the bulk of the disturbances came from the galleries. Mr. Bryan returned to his place with the Nebraska delegates just as the uproar began to subside.

When some semblance of order was restored Chairman James ordered Oklahoma passed.

Pennsylvania gave Clark five, a gain of one. Wilson got 71, a loss of one. In Tennessee Clark gained 5; Underwood and Gaylor each one, striking Gaylor off the roll.

In Alaska Wilson gained one from Clark.

Wilson gained another from Clark in Porto Rico.

Connecticut which had been passed Clark gained four from Underwood.

Chairman James directed that the Oklahoma vote which was in dispute be cast ten for Clark and ten for Wilson.

The result of the vote on the tenth ballot was: Clark 556; Wilson 350 1-2; Underwood 117 1-2; Harmon 31; Marshall 31; Kern 1; Bryan 1. This was a gain of 104 for Clark but he still lacked 170 of the necessary two-thirds.

Wilson lost 2, Underwood 5 and Harmon 96.

Once more "No nomination" was announced, but Chairman James took occasion to remark that Clark had received "more than a majority." This brought a storm of protest from the Wilson men and the 11th roll call was begun.

Clark amid a chorus of boos and cheers.

In Ohio Wilson gained two from Clark.

Two Wilson delegates in Oregon deserted to Clark and one of them, F. V. Holman, stated that his instruction only bound him so long as it was possible to nominate Wilson.

The result of the 11th ballot: Clark 554; Wilson 354 1-2; Underwood 118 1-2; Harmon 29; Marshall 30; Kern 1; Bryan 1.

This showed a loss of 2 for Clark; a gain of four for Wilson; a gain of one for Underwood, a loss of one for Harmon and a loss of one for Marshall.

When Tennessee was reached in the 12th ballot, a poll of the delegation was demanded. A mix up resulted and the roll was called twice. The ballot was delayed 15 minutes by the trouble.

Chairman James surrendered the gavel to Representative William Suizer, of New York.

The 12th ballot likewise failed to nominate. The result was: Clark 547 1-2; Wilson 354; Underwood 123; Harmon 29; Marshall 30; Bryan 1; Kern 1. This showed a loss of 6 1-2 for Clark, and the remainder unchanged.

Several of the Champ Clark Managers, including Senator Stone and David R. Francis, of Missouri, conferred with National Chairman Mack and Chairman James when the 12th ballot showed no nomination. It had become apparent that a long deadlock was in prospect and the leaders decided to adjourn. At 3:05 the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock this afternoon.

In the morning of July 4th, after the report of committees, W. D. Brown, editor of the R. F. D. News, will deliver an address and the selection of a State organ will be made, after which Inspector Plummer will make an address.

At the evening session on the last day, there will be an address by Hon. J. M. Gudge, Jr., which will be followed by the election and installation of officers and the concluding exercises.

Brings Prisoner Back. Deputy Sheriff John H. Davis returned this morning at 1 o'clock from Rocky Mount with W. S. Ames, a white man wanted here on a charge of burglary.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by one brother, Mr. Burdette Walker, and one sister, Mrs. J. D. Terry, both of Statesville.

Statesville, N. C., June 28.—Mr. Adrian Walker, who had been ill a long time, died yesterday just before noon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker, on Center street.

He was another victim of the great white plague. Funeral services were conducted today by Rev. Harold Turner and the burial was in Oakwood cemetery. Mr. Walker was 25 years old.

Col. Bryan saw the steam roller coming and shoved it off the track.

Don't lie on any man. It might give him provocation to tell the plain truth
on you.

A Teddyrat is logically a third term. No Democrat could be a Teddyrat.

The honeymoon is over when the groom begins to borrow small change
from the June bride.

Col. Roosevelt has returned to Oyster Bay. Will Oyster Bay Colonel Roosevelt in his den?

As big a man as Taft is, Teddy thinks he can take a red bandanna
and wipe up the earth with him.

Col. Bryan received one vote on the first ballot in the Baltimore convention yesterday morning. Whom do you suspect?

Says the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot:
"Fight and shake hands." Wouldn't it be better to shake hands and call off the fight?

Our idea of a cheerful idiot is a man who is satisfied that Democrats
can fight each other and finally clean up the Republican party.

What's the use to be worth a million dollars if it makes you such a suspect that you can't get to be a delegate to a political convention?

Politicians are might warm and people are excited, but whatever happens we will have to go right on trying to earn enough to stand in with the grocer.

A Boston minister declares "there are eighteen hundred different conceptions of hell." Make it 1801, on account of Colonel Roosevelt's opinion
of Taft's steam roller.

Some people actually believe that
Col. Roosevelt is really a progressive.
This will put the gold brick men on notice that lots of people will continue to buy yellow metal from strangers.

Keynote speeches don't amount to a row of pins. A fellow who falls through every crack in the platform
wouldn't mind lighting his cigar with the utterances of the average politician.

Since we note that many shades of opinion exist among Democrats at Baltimore, it is difficult to say which ones ought to be read out of the party.
If we were to read out all who differ with us, the party would be pruned
down to one individual.

Governor Hadley, of Missouri, says
he will vote for Taft but continue to be a progressive. If all progressives
were to talk right and vote wrong, standpatism would go right on forever. Hadley fools himself when he thinks he can win a game by helping his opponent to rake in the pot.

Tom Watson, of Georgia, laid down
on going to Baltimore to make a few jabs at Col. Bryan. Watson got sick and could not attend. We hate to note that Tom is not feeling well, but no doubt it would have been worse
for him in Baltimore. Somebody might have jumped up and called him
a red-headed, snaggle-toothed monte-
bank, or a pecky, pallaverous poltroon.

Anyhow North Carolina won at the Baltimore convention. Mr. E. E.
Britton, of the Raleigh News and Observer, was elected secretary of the National Democratic Committee. He defeated Editor Urey Woodson, of the Owensboro (Ky.) Messenger, who has made a fine secretary for probably 20 years. The Raleigh newspaper man will make a splendid secretary, and
The Star joins in the hearty congratulations that are his on all sides.

THE JAPS AS OUR OCEAN CARRIERS.

When the Panama canal is open for traffic we need not be surprised to see the flag of Nippon flying amidst the shipping in the port of Wilmington.
The Japs are smart people and they are already setting us a pace in making advance inquiry concerning the possibilities of getting business in Atlantic and Gulf ports for their steamship companies.

Japanese steamship companies already do a large trans-Pacific business
with ports on the American and British Pacific coast, and it is quite reasonable to suppose that as soon as they can use the Panama canal, they will invade the Atlantic with their ships. Indeed, the prospecting representatives of one of the largest Japanese steamship firms is visiting ports
on the Gulf and the Atlantic, making a study of the possibilities of the ocean carrying trade between our ports and the Orient.

Announcement comes from New Orleans that one of the largest Japanese steamship companies contemplates a line from Japan to New Orleans or Galveston. New Orleans is making a strenuous effort to secure the line, and she is in a good position to do so since the Crescent City has completed an elaborate system of municipal piers
and harbor terminals. General Manager Rikitaro Kufuko, of the line referred to, is now in New Orleans, and it was according to his announcement
that it is stated that his company would send its ships to this side of the continent for business. He is merely looking over the field now, and definite arrangements will not be made till next winter.

Mr. Kufuko arrived in New Orleans
this week from Panama where he went to note the progress of canal construction and get first hand observations and information. He dropped into New Orleans en route to Japan by way of New York and London. President E. J. Glenn, of the New Orleans
Cotton Exchange, and Assistant T. S.
McChesney, of the Port Commission of New Orleans, furnished him with statistical information and data about the relative merits of the ports of New Orleans and Galveston. The facilities of the port of New Orleans were explained, at length to Mr. Kufuko and his attention was directed to its many advantages.

It can be vouched that the Crescent
City boosters made a big showing in favor of their port in comparison with the port of Galveston. Thus we see that before the Panama canal is ready for business, the Gulf ports are strongly competing for commerce. As a matter of course, the port which has modern ship terminals and facilities, together with other advantages, will be the port which will get Mr. Kufuko's line. He says another representative of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, the line of which he is general manager, will visit America in the early fall to make a detailed inspection of the two ports of New Orleans and Galveston.

This shows that the facilities and merits of our ports will be carefully considered by steamship companies
looking for business, and it is the port
with ample piers, warehouses and
rail distribution that will be selected.
What if the representatives of any steamship company were to come to Wilmington to make such an inspection
as Mr. Kufuko has made at New Orleans? Who could give him the statistics, point out the facilities, and elaborate upon the possibilities of business for Oriental ports and for traffic
from Oriental countries with this portion of America?

It would have to be somebody who "knows" the port of Wilmington, and who will make a study of a wide territory from which to draw commerce.
It can be foreseen right now if the Japanese are to bring their ships to our ports there is bound to be a great opportunity for us to do a direct trade
in cotton manufactures, raw cotton,
and whatever other products and commodities can be taken to the Oriental trade. Our ports also necessarily must do a large import business with Oriental countries, for the Japanese steamship companies expect to do business going and coming.

DAIRY AND STOCK INDUSTRY

Government experts in dairying and stock raising see a great future in the South for those industries when
this country is free from the cattle tick. Of course with the danger of cattle tick fever and the consequent results, the industry would not have such an inviting field as if the country were free from ticks and other
pests which bother cattle and stock.

However, the government is ready and anxious to aid in eradicating the tick, and it will come to our aid when we comply with the requirements.
That is to first fence our cattle instead of our crops, and provide fenced ranges and pastures for cattle instead of letting them roam the tick-infested woods and thickets. We will be ready for the business of dairying and cattle-raising just as soon as all our counties adopt the "no-fence law," and the day that we do it and establish co-operative dairies, we will at least
be able to supply our butter and meat
instead of depending on the North and West. This country is now ready for co-operative dairies and the government is ready to co-operate whenever the farmers take the initiative.

Both the government and the railroads are greatly interested in the introduction of the live stock and dairy industries into the South, for it is a neglected resource of wealth. It is also a necessity, for it is important that if we feed and supply the needs of the millions of people in this country we must greatly enlarge production. Even this week the price of beef mutton and pork has taken another rise of one-half cent a pound, and it is attributed to the small receipts of livestock

in the great cattle markets of the West.

We will have to do something sooner or later, or else, merely exchange for Western meats and grain products all the other crops that we can produce in the South. It will no doubt be a trade in which we are losers to even
a greater degree than at present.

COL. BRYAN'S CONVENTION.

The National Democratic convention at Baltimore gave Col. Bryan a mild slap on the wrist in the small matter of defeating him for temporary chairman and keynote speaker, but with its selection of Judge Parker as temporary chairman, the Democratic hosts went out of business for themselves.

Col. Bryan has had charge ever since. One of his men was made permanent chairman when the gavel was handed over to Senator Ollie James,
and it finally developed that the matter of writing a platform was handed over to Col. Bryan and Senator O'Gorman, of New York. Previous to that,
however, the Nebraskan had the convention to agree to nominate a candidate before it adopted a platform. He then clinched the convention for a progressive candidate by having passed a resolution of his own, binding the convention to nominate no candidate
unless he is progressive.

Since Col. Bryan is the sole judge
as to progressives and reactionaries,
that left it to him to say who is progressive and who is not. Quite naturally, that eliminated from the contest
Judge Harmon and the Hon. Oscar W.
Underwood.

We will know the result this morning, and it is pretty safe to say that the nominee named will be our next President.

CURRENT COMMENT.

China has rejected the loan of $300,
000,000 offered by the ex-pow syndicate of bankers on terms which subjected the National finances to foreign supervision. The action illustrates the spirit of independence
which in other respects also distinguishes the new Republic from the old regime.—New York World.

The Wilmington citizen who is credited with protesting because his city is spending more money, in improvement to population and area, on its health department than other towns
in North Carolina, would seem to be the kind of citizen that any city can well afford to be without. Money judiciously devoted to promotion of the public health is the best spent money that any community can expend. The protest against such expenditures is to evince disregard of both public and individual interest.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

There is a great deal of talk about Wilmington that the Norfolk Southern is going to build into that city.
Survey parties have been in that section and options on suburban property have been taken. Kinston is now the nearest point on the Norfolk Southern to Wilmington, a distance of about 70 miles. There are one or two short lines of road which it is said the Norfolk Southern controls, which would reduce the distance for new construction to about 40 miles. Of course, the Wilmington people hope these rumors are true. They are very anxious for the Norfolk Southern to go there. We hope that there is no truth in the rumor and that the Norfolk Southern will enter that city, not only by the route suggested from the north,
but also from the northwest by the completion of the Raleigh & Southport to its logical terminal.—Raleigh Times.

Mr. John Zimmerman and the other Charlotte people interested with him in the establishment of a cold storage plant, have bestowed a benedict upon this city which ought to come into quick appreciation. The cold storage warehouse is a modern institution and the opening of the business
here makes Charlotte as the center of another important industry. The apple growers of the western part of the State will be able to preserve their product in marketable shape until such time as the quotations for apples suit them. Housekeepers can preserve their carpets, rugs, furs and other heavy goods throughout the Summer
at about the cost of moth balls and have them returned without odor. The farmer bringing a veal, mutton, or beef
to town and not finding the market
right, can store his meat until some convenient day and take it out all the better and in more desirable market shape, having been in storage.
Housewives may find the cold storage
a great convenience for the temporary care of butter and fruits and in a thousand ways this institution will perform a useful purpose in Charlotte. This cold storage business is new to this section, having begun operations as recently as May 20th. The plant is located in a portion of the old freight depot of the Southern Railway Company and has a capacity of 40 carloads. There are seven cold storage departments regulated by the refrigerating plant in the basement.
The temperature in the room devoted to the storage of clothing and furnishings is kept below the freezing point. The temperature in the other rooms varies from 32 to 38 degrees.
The merchants not only of Charlotte,
but of some of the adjoining towns,
are already taking advantage of the opportunities thus opened to them.
A dealer in a neighboring town has been saved the necessity of selling a carload of lard at a price that did not suit him, or having it turn rancid on his hands. The cold storage enterprise is a big thing. It is going to grow on the town.—Charlotte Chronicle.

NEGRO FATALLY WOUNDED.

Thigh Shattered by Gunshot—College
Erection at Washington, N. C.
(Special Star Correspondence)
Washington, N. C., June 28.—While on his way home last night William McNair, colored, of this city, and a tenant on the farm of Dr. David T.
Taylor, was seriously shot and is now in a precarious condition. It seems that McNair and his sister were walking on the Atlantic Coast line tracks on their way home last night about 9 o'- clock, and McNair was carrying a double-barreled shotgun, loaded with No. 1 shot. The gun was fired accidentally as he attempted to throw the breech
in place and the whole load entered his thigh. Dr. David T. Taylor was hastily summoned and the unfortunate
man was rushed to the Washington
hospital, where surgical aid was rendered. His thigh is pretty badly torn and shattered and his condition is serious with slight hopes for his recovery.

It is understood that the work of constructing the large college of the Northern Methodist church at Washington Park in this city will be commenced at an early date. As was announced some weeks ago the Northern Methodist church accepted Washington's bid for the college, together with a cash donation of $5,000, and a valuable building site and decided to locate the college in this city. Bishop Henderson, of the Northern General
Conference, who has been assigned

HOUSE BROKEN INTO

White Man Charged With Larceny of Clothes—Investigation

Walter Troutman, a white man, was arrested Thursday evening by Officer
H. G. Bullard on a warrant charging him with the larceny of a lot of clothing, the property of Burke H. Bridgers, Esq., and the police are still working on the case in the hope of being able to bring a charge of house-
breaking against the man.

The home of Mrs. P. J. Bridges at 102 South Third street, which at present is unoccupied as members of the family are spending the Summer
at the beach, was entered Monday night and a lot of clothing and other articles stolen. The burglar entered the house through a lattice door in the rear and a rear window. The police discovered the robbery Tuesday morning and have been working on the case since then.

They learned that Troutman had been endeavoring to sell some clothing that corresponded to the description of some of the clothing taken from the Bridges' home, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. The police had no trouble in finding him,
and they have not been able to locate the clothes he was alleged to have been trying to sell. His case was continued in the Recorder's court yesterday pending further investigation of the case.

THOSE "CONSERVED" TIES.

North Carolina Delegates Have to Seek Barber Shop Aid.
(Baltimore Evening Sun.)

"New fangled concerns," like four-in-hand ties, are giving trouble to the older members of the North Carolina delegation. They do not know how to tie them by themselves.
Dressing in the morning, they go to the barber shop of the Hotel Lexington, where the delegation is stopping, with their collars off and stand around like small boys waiting to have their ties tied. They wait their turn patiently and are profuse with their thanks to those who assist.
"I should have brought my wife
along," rumbled one old chap. "She always ties my ties. She said I would not be able to take care of myself."
"I never had one of these ties before. I wanted a new one with a rooster on it for a souvenir. The clerk in the store told me they were stylish and tied it on for me. I left the old one there. Now I can't get into this one. I want a made cravat.
These conserved things are a nuisance."

NATIONAL FORESTS.

Number of Changes Have Been Made
by President Taft.

Washington, D. C., June 28.—President Taft has just made considerable changes in National forests in Montana, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and California through Presidential proclamations modifying the boundary lines. By these changes nearly 275,000 acres of land are eliminated from the forests,
and 65,000 acres are added, and about 55,000 acres are transferred between two forests, while a new forest
is created by the division of an old unit into two.

The net result is to bring down the total gross area of the National forests to about 137,400,000 acres, of which nearly 27,000,000 acres are in Alaska.
To a considerable extent, however, the reductions, so far as land actually
owned by the government is concerned,
are apparent rather than real, owing
to heavy alienations in the tracts eliminated. Some 22,000,000 acres of the National forest gross area are not owned by the government.

The high water mark of the National forest gross area was reached in 1909, when the forest boundaries included over 194,000,000 acres. It was then realized, however, that in making the examinations on which the Presidential proclamations creating the forests were based the work had been too rapid to insure in all cases the best boundaries. Sometimes land which should have been included was left out, while at other times land was taken in which was not best suited to forest purposes.

Consequently a complete overhauling and rectification of the forest boundaries was planned, and has been going on ever since. By successive proclamations President Taft has eliminated nearly 11,000,000 acres,
while he has added about 4,000,000 acres.

In Montana the new proclamations eliminate a total of 116,370 acres from six forests—the Custer, Absaroka, Blackfoot, Kootenai, Lewis and Clark,
and Flathead—while 14,640 acres are transferred from the Blackfoot to the Kootenai and 40,640 from the Kootenai
to the Blackfoot, to facilitate administration. In Arizona 106,540
acres are eliminated from the Humboldt and 55,840 acres added, of which 12,800 acres are included in the new Rudy National Forest, composed principally of that part of the old Humboldt lying south of the Southern Pacific Railroad. In Utah 1,340 acres are eliminated from the Sevier, while in California 8,680 acres are added to the Shasta and 480 acres to the Klamath.

THIN FOLKS MADE PLUMP

Samose Ideal Flesh Builder, Says
Druggist J. Hicks Bunting

Thin people are simply suffering
from want of nourishment!

If you are thin, it is because the food you eat is not assimilated and passes through the system without building up the flesh and tissue as it should.

You can readily get plump and rosy
by using Samose, a tissue-forming
food which when taken with the meals,
immediately becomes a flesh-building
and life-giving element in the blood.
Samose builds up the system, puts flesh on the bones, brings back the glow of health to the pallid cheek and removes the tired and languid feeling which is the result of exhaustion and low vitality.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., are introducing Samose to their customers and recommend it highly. They give the best proof of their belief that Samose will do all that is claimed for it by offering to refund the money
if it fails to increase the weight and restore good health.

JOINT MEETING TO BE HELD

County May Co-operate With City in Providing Disposal Plant or Incinerator To Take Care of Refuse — Resolution

With only one dissenting vote, that of Mayor Joseph D. Smith, the New Hanover County Board of Health, in special session yesterday afternoon, adopted a resolution prohibiting the City of Wilmington or any firm, corporation or individual from depositing on or beneath the surface of the soil of the county any refuse, bodies of dead animals, swill, etc.

The board also decided to invite the City Council and the Board of County Commissioners to meet with it next Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of discussing the matter of disposing of such things, and, if possible, to arrange for the installation of disposal plants, incinerators, or whatever other means are deemed advisable, and to arrange for the city and county both to bear the expense of such plants, each paying its pro-rata share.

The resolution adopted is in the form of a repleve for the city, giving it an extension of time in which to provide means for disposing of the refuse mentioned, for there is already a law on the books of the county prohibiting the dumping of it on the ground or the burial of it under the surface of the ground. The County Board of Health recently notified the city that it would enforce the law hereafter, and the meeting yesterday was for the purpose of ascertaining what had been done. The city has been contemplating the installation of an incinerator, but nothing definite has been done.

Mayor Jos. D. Smith, a member of the board by virtue of his office, did not present any formal answer from the city, though the matter was discussed in a general way.

Chairman D. McEachern, president and all members were present, as follows: Drs. E. J. Wood, Harlow Bellamy, Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent of education, and Mayor Joseph D. Smith, also the clerk, Mr. John Haar, Dr. W. D. MacMillan, county superintendent of health, and County Attorney Marsden Bellamy.

Dr. Bellamy and Wood presented a report of an inspection they had made, pointing out that the law was being flagrantly violated in several sections by the placing of the carcasses of dead animals on the surface, or burying them a few feet under ground, and also by the dumping of refuse on the ground. They also stated that it was the duty of the County Board of Health to see that such violations of the law are abated as quickly as possible.

Mayor Smith stated that he was heartily in accord with the enforcement of the laws and that he felt that it must be done soon. However, he said, the City Council was considering a plan which was not matured sufficiently as yet to allow discussion, and that he thought that after another week more would be known definitely about it.

He declared that members of the City Council did not think that an incinerator would suffice to dispose of the refuse, and that some other means would have to be provided for taking care of it. He stated that Councilman B. C. Moore had been looking into the matter and had found a place on the river several miles below the city, which could be rented, and that the body was considering renting this place, putting the stables of the sanitary department there and installing a small disposal plant to take care of the refuse.

Dr. Wood read a letter from Dr. Chas. W. Stiles, of the United States Public Health Service, who at present is stationed here, in which Dr. Stiles discussed at length the danger in disposing of refuse on the soil and called attention to the conditions prevailing in this county.

Dr. Wood then offered the following resolution, which was seconded by Dr. Bellamy:

"Whereas, since the year 1880, the various health bodies of New Hanover county through their medical members have repeatedly given warning of the danger arising from the disposal of refuse, the bodies of dead animals, swill, and other forms of garbage on the surface of the ground or buried just below the surface, and

"Whereas, in spite of the rapid growth of the City of Wilmington with a corresponding increase in the amount of refuse and the great increase in population of the immediately surrounding country the repeated demands of the county of New Hanover have been ignored in violation of various actions of the County Board of Health calling the attention of the City of Wilmington to these evils, and

"Whereas, the medical members of the County Board of Health in consultation with the county superintendent of health of said county, after careful investigation and consideration of the whole matter of the disposal of garbage find that the public health of New Hanover county is seriously jeopardized by the throwing of refuse, the bodies of dead animals, swill, refuse from butcher pens, markets, and grocery establishments, and all other forms of putrescible matter on the surface of the ground or buried beneath the surface, thereby causing a dangerous source of population to both soil and water, therefore,

"Be it resolved by the County Board of Health of New Hanover in accordance with Section 9 of the Public Health Laws of North Carolina that on and after October 1st, 1912, it shall be unlawful for the City of Wilmington or any firm, corporation, or individual to deposit on or beneath the soil of New Hanover county any refuse, bodies of dead animals, swill, refuse from butcher pens, markets, packing houses, grocery establishments or other forms of putrescible matter which in the opinion of the county superintendent of health of said county shall be deleterious to the public health."

Mayor Smith stated that he was in favor of the recommendations made in the resolution but that he did not think it fair to compel the City of Wilmington to observe the law and not to compel the same things of the village of Delgado, Sea Gate and others in the county. Dr. Wood declared that he thought the resolution covered

ed the other places as well as the City of Wilmington.

Chairman D. McEachern stated that the question under consideration was a big one and he was in favor of the adoption of the resolution, but that he thought it should not be handled in too much haste and he suggested that a meeting of the Board of Health be held to which the City Council and the Board of County Commissioners be invited, to consider some plan of providing means of disposing of the refuse and to arrange it possible for the city and county to bear the expense of providing disposal plants, incinerators, etc., on a pro-rata share.

Dr. Wood objected to this, stating that he thought the plan a wise one, but urged that the resolution be either adopted at the meeting or tabled. He thought it was time to take definite action. After some further discussion the question was put and all members voted in favor of the adoption of the resolution except Mayor Smith, who declared that he could not support it unless he was certain that it applied to all communities in the county, as well as the city.

The clerk was then instructed to notify the members of City Council and the County Board of Commissioners to meet with the Board of Health next Wednesday afternoon, for the purpose of considering the matter further.

The date on which the resolution is to become effective was fixed with the idea that ample time be given the municipality to construct an incinerator and install an incinerator. It is said that it will take every bit of the time allowed by the resolution to make the required improvements, therefore, it is expected that something definite will be done without further delay toward complying with the law, for law it will be on and after October 1st, 1912.

THE RECORDER'S COURT

Negro Sent to Roads for Larceny—Probable Cause in Embezzlement

Robert H. Brown, colored, charged with the larceny of a cartoon of snuff consigned to the J. C. Stevenson Co., from the Clyde Line Steamship yards on the water front, was found guilty in the Recorder's court yesterday and sentenced to three months on the county roads. The negro was seen by some of the employees making away with the snuff and was run down and caught by the other men.

Probable cause was found in a case charging Thos. Hayes, colored, with the embezzlement of $1 from Louis Best, and he was sent to jail in default of $50 bond to await trial in the Superior Court. The plaintiff testified that she gave the man $1 to pay the freight on some goods at the Clyde Line depot and to deliver them to her, and that he not only failed to deliver the goods, but also refused to return her money.

Peter Howard, colored, was charged with highway robbery, but probable cause was not found. Through his attorney, Louis Poisson, Esq., he entered a submission to a charge of forcible trespass on the property of a colored woman and was let off on payment of a fine of $25 and costs. Ethel Hough, colored, was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct, and John Parker, colored, was let off on a similar charge of payment of the costs. R. S. Priggen, white, charged with making an excavation in the streets and not putting a guard around it, was discharged.

The case against W. R. Dickens, white, charged with larceny and receiving stolen goods, was continued until today. He gave bond of $250 for his appearance, with R. F. Brooks, Esq., as surety.

A case against Walter Troutman, white, charged with the larceny of a lot of clothing from Burke H. Briggers, Esq., was continued until next Tuesday. The defendant could not give bond and went to jail.

LINEMAN MET TRAGIC DEATH

Mr. Jas. C. Register Electrocuted Yesterday Morning at Third and Castle Streets—Died Almost Instantly.

Working high up on a pole at corner of Third and Castle streets, yesterday morning about 10:30 o'clock, Mr. James C. Register, one of the most able linemen in the employ of the Tidewater Power Company, in some way touched one of the exposed joints on the large feed wire and about 2,200 volts of electricity shot through his body, causing death almost instantly. He gave one short cry and pitched forward over the wire, to be caught and held by Mr. Murry Croom, another lineman on the pole.

The linemen were engaged yesterday in changing the wires from an old pole at the northeast corner of Third and Castle streets, which was in the way of the street curbing, to another pole. The work was about completed, except for the hanging of the feed wires at the top of the pole. Mr. Register was standing on a cross arm, waiting for Mr. J. C. Womack, who was in charge of the work, to make a connection on the other side of the pole. Mr. J. Murry Croom, another lineman, was on the same pole, but about three feet below the other two men.

Mr. Register shifted his position and in some manner touched one of the exposed joints in the wire. The other men heard him call, "I am gone," and looked up in time to see him pitch forward over the wire. Mr. Croom called out, "No, you're not. Two got you," catching Mr. Register by the leg, as he fell. Both men saw a slight flash and heard the noise made by an electric spark as Mr. Register called out.

The lineman was lowered to the ground by means of a rope and was carried by four laborers who were assisting the linemen into Mr. W. M. Edwards' grocery store, nearby, and the other linemen immediately made every effort to restore respiration. It was thought at one time that their efforts would be successful, as Mr. Register seemed about to revive, but his form soon relaxed and the pallor of death spread over his face.

In the meantime medical attention had been summoned and Dr. R. B. Slocumb arrived in a short time. He was followed in a few minutes by Dr. C. T. Harper and the ambulance from the James Walker Memorial Hospital. The physicians made every effort to revive the unfortunate man, but it was soon seen that nothing could be done.

After Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, had viewed the body and given permission for its removal, it was turned over to Mr. Jas. F. W. L. Smith, Esq., of the local bar, and an ardent Odd Fellow, is chairman. Mr. Smith said last night that it had not been decided as yet where the meeting will be held, but that headquarters will probably be at the Seashore Hotel. The meeting of the Association of County Commissioners of North Carolina will be in progress at the same time at the Oceanic Hotel. Mr. Smith said that as soon as the meeting hall has been decided upon and the rates have been received from the hotels and forwarded to the officers, the matter of arranging the programme will be taken up. There will be a number of social features.

FUNERAL OF MR. J. Q. MYERS.

Sad and Impressive Services Held From St. John's Church.

Sad and impressive funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at St. John's Episcopal church, in honor of the memory of Mr. John Q. Myers, who died from heart failure while surf bathing at Wrightsville Beach Thursday evening. The church was crowded with a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives, among whom were the members of the Wilmington Light Infantry, of which the deceased was a member, and also the clerics from the Coast Line office in which Mr. Myers was employed.

The remains were escorted from the family residence at 205 South Eighth street by the W. L. I. and the church building was well filled even before the arrival of the funeral procession. In the absence of Rev. Wm. E. Cox, the rector, Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, conducted the services.

Bishop Strange preached a tender and beautiful sermon, and the service was hardly a dry eye in the church upon its completion.

The W. L. I. escorted the remains to Oakdale cemetery, where the service was completed and the internment made. Innumerable handsome floral designs covered the grave, among which was an especially handsome one from the W. L. I. and another from the Sunday school of St. John's Episcopal church, of which the deceased was secretary and treasurer.

The pallbearers were: Honorary—Mr. H. G. Smallbones and Prof. Washington Catlett, Senior Warden and Junior Warden, respectively, of St. John's; Active—Messrs. Geo. Cleopar, J. Hicks, Bunting, Bertram Quelch, Willie James, Geo. Haskett and Mr. Southernland.

After the casket had been lowered into the grave and covered the W. L. I. fired three volleys over the mound and the mournful, sad and ever sweet strains of taps rang out from the bugle, bringing the services to a close.

TELEGRAPH RATES LOWERED.

Both Companies Give Cheaper Rates and Virginia and South Carolina.

The local managers of both the Western Union Telegraph Company and the Postal Telegraph Cable Company announced yesterday that effective July 1st, their respective companies will give a cheaper rate from Wilmington to points in Virginia and South Carolina.

Mr. G. E. Wood, manager of the Western Union, said that with few exceptions, the rates that formerly were 40 cents for ten words and three cents for each additional word, will after July 1st be 30 cents for ten words and two cents for each additional word. Among the large cities that will be affected by the reduction by the Western Union are Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va., and Charleston, S. C. About 100 smaller cities and towns in the two States will enjoy this reduction.

The Postal announces that its new rate will apply as to messages sent to Charleston, Camden, Rock Hill and Sumter, S. C.; Danville, Emporia, Norfolk, Portsmouth and Suffolk, Va., and a number of smaller places in the two States.

Arranges for Laboratory

Mr. Thos. C. Law, secretary and treasurer of the Picard-Law Co., of Atlanta, Ga., consulting and analytical chemists, is spending a few days in the city. He is here to make arrangements for the opening of a branch laboratory in Wilmington to serve North Carolina patrons of the company. The office will be opened some time this summer and will be in charge of five or six experienced chemists. Rooms have been secured in the building over Peterson & Ruffs shoe store.

Episcopalians Won Yesterday

The Episcopalians took a slow but closely contested game of baseball yesterday afternoon by the score of 8 to 7. Neither team was in good condition and the game was rather poorly played. This contest necessitates the playing of a post-series game between the Episcopalians and St. Andrew's, as these teams have tied for first place. The game will be played at Hilton Monday. Batteries, Episcopalians: Harriss and Jacobs; Presbyterians: Haskagen and Hicks.

Permission has been asked for a stop at Fort Caswell, where refreshments will be served on the boat. The public is cordially invited to enjoy the trip with members of the league.

Stella, N. C., June 25.—This afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Mollie Mattocks, near Stella, her daughter, Miss Pauline, became the bride of Mr. William David Sanders. The beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed under an arch of Southern smilax which was erected behind the bride and groom. The bride was given away by her father, Rev. J. C. Whedbee, who stood before a bank of long leaf pine and lilies. Mendelssohn's march was rendered by Miss Glennie Korneagay, of Morehead City, who wore a blue messaline. Leading the bridal party was the bride's maid, Miss Lila Aman, of Richlands, the maid of honor, wearing blue messaline, preceded the bride, who came out on the arm of her brother, Mr. Geo. Mattocks. The bride was handsomely gowned in white satin and wore a white picture hat. At the arch the bride was met by the groom in his best man's suit. The bride's brother, Mr. Cien Sanders, the groomsmen wore the conventional black with white ties. Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party left for the home of the groom where a reception was given in their honor. The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. Mollie Mattocks, and the groom is a rising young business man of Hubert. Their popularity is attested by the many and handsome gifts they received.

C., June 28.—Miss Mary McKay has been entertaining several of her school friends for the past week, her out-of-town guests being Misses Sallie Freeman, Middlesex; Sallie Calvert, Jackson; Laura Jacobs, Wilmington, and Miss Inez Day, Winston-Salem. Among the social events given during the week in honor of the visiting ladies, was one at the home of Miss McKay on Friday night. The guests were received by Misses Harper and McKay. They were then ushered into the library where punch was served. At 11:30 a delightful two-course luncheon was served after which came vocal solos and readings. Fifty-six guests enjoyed the hospitality of Miss McKay and her charming mother in the attractive home. LOCAL DOTS.

A rather belated "first" cotton bloom has been sent to The Star from Jas. Dunn, colored, of Kelly, N. C. Two or three "first" blooms were sent to The Star about a week ago.

At Immanuel Presbyterian church tomorrow services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Crowley, at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. Christian Endeavor Society meets at 7:15 P. M. and Sunday school at 10 A. M.

Through an error The Star yesterday referred to Mr. A. H. Yopp as being proprietor of the Liquor Cure Sanitarium at Reidsville, N. C. Mr. A. J. Yopp and not Mr. A. H. Yopp is one of the proprietors of the company operating the sanitarium.

The British steamer Manchester Merchant, Capt. Payne, arrived yesterday from Hamburg, via Charleston with part cargo of fertilizer materials for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co., International Agricultural Corporation and the Coe-Mortimer Co. Messrs. Helde & Co. are agents for the vessel.

The prayer meeting at Fifth Street Methodist church Wednesday night was turned into a convention for the consideration of matters pertaining especially to the Sunday School. It was voted to change the time of Sunday School during the Summer months from afternoon to morning and 10 o'clock was fixed as the hour.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION

Much Local Interest in Big Democratic Gathering in Baltimore

There has been the greatest interest locally in the great Democratic National Convention in session at Baltimore and until a late hour last night the bulletin board in front of The Star building was eagerly scanned by great crowds in quest of the "latest" while inside the office the telephone was constantly ringing at the behest of those who chose the more prosaic method of receiving the returns at their homes. Bulletins were received directly from the convention floor by the Star in Wilmington and the bulletins were posted for the information of the public within a minute after they were received—even before they were read by employees of the paper themselves inside the office.

Interest throughout the State was at fever heat and The Star was besieged with long distance telephone calls from many points in North Carolina for the results up to the time of call. The Star yesterday morning while the convention was still in session issued two editions, one for the mails carrying the very latest information up to the time of the closing of the mails and another at 5 o'clock, carrying everything up to that hour for the paper's city subscribers. These were followed about 8:30 o'clock by an extra for local distribution, carrying the first ballot for President and the news that an adjournment had been taken until later in the day. Many hundreds of these found ready sale on the streets and carried to Wilmington the next day and foreboding the long fight that seemed destined to follow.

In the event of no nomination The Star will continue to display bulletins in front of its office today and the public may depend upon it, that these will be posted the minute they are received and even before they are read in the paper's own office.

The Star will also be glad to answer telephone inquiries to No. 51 and the very latest information will be given cheerfully.

MR. EDWIN BORDEN ILL.

Suffered Stroke of Paralysis Wednesday at Clifton Springs. Mr. Edwin Borden, general superintendent of transportation of the Atlantic Coast Line, is critically ill at Clifton Springs, N. Y., according to advices received here yesterday by friends. It was learned yesterday that Mr. Borden had suffered a stroke of paralysis Wednesday afternoon, and that he has improved very little since then. A telegram was received yesterday by Col. Walker Taylor stating that Mr. Borden was critically ill. Later in the day a telegram was received by Mrs. B. A. Lynch, a sister, to the effect that some improvement had been noted in Mr. Borden's condition.

Mr. Borden left several weeks ago for Clifton Springs in the hope that a stay at the place would benefit his health. He was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Archibald Cannon, of Concord, and Miss Alice Borden, of this city, have gone to the bedside of their father. Miss Duralde Borden, another daughter, is in Concord. The distressing news of Mr. Borden's illness was received with deep regret by his many friends here. All will hope for an early report of improvement in his condition.

What agony he must have experienced would have saved him. A few teaspoonfuls ends a late cough, while persistent runs outlast coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure it's a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumed today if I had not used this great remedy." ..Theatrical..

Mr. John Bunney, the fat faced and fat of form moving picture comedian, will be a star at the handsome new Bijou this afternoon and to night. Bunney, who is the highest salaried moving picture actors and one who is noted in this country and in Europe, will appear in the very latest Vitagraph film, which is a scream for laughter. The Vitagraph concern has engaged a large company of Theatricals, especially for staging their wonderful films and Bunney is their foremost comedian. His face and figure are widely known and films in which he is the star are always in demand. The one today at the new Bijou is called "Chased by Bloodhounds," and as well as being the very latest it is the very biggest thing yet produced. Bunney engages in the poultry business and as chief promoter of this kind of industry he is a peach. When a juicy fowl is lifted from his hen yard he gets mad all over, which is some mad, judging by his avoirdupois, and then he gets a bloodhound and goes on the warpath. And as an after-math, the dreams he has are howls for pure joy.

This Vitagraph is only one of today's stars, however. There are others, including the latest and best Lubin, "Over the Divide," which is a dramatic film of intensity and one that will grip the heart. The hold-up is a startling bit of work, while the bandit's cave, attacked by sheriff's posse, also furnishes an exciting moment. Remember, too, that the new Bijou is always cool and delightfully comfortable otherwise. It is the joy spot.

At the Grand Theatre. The Grand Theatre today will offer its usual fine bill of motion pictures and in addition will present to the amusement loving public one of the most attractive and pleasant auditoriums in the city, cooled by numerous electric fans and perfectly ventilated in every respect.

The orchestra is also another big feature and the public is beginning to know and appreciate this added offering at Wilmington's favorite playhouse. "True Love," a splendid Pathe film, will perhaps feature the moving pictures, while "The New Physician," a Lubin "as clear as a bell," will be found equally as good. Jack Harrison is the young physician and he has a little tiff over a trivial matter with Helen Stuart, his sweetheart. Helen snubs Jack on the street and looking back, sees him laughing at her. She resolves to teach him a lesson. She becomes a hospital nurse and during the vacation of a college chum he goes to another town to do his medical hospital. He is a fine-looking fellow and the girls are just "crazy" over him but he refuses to make many acquaintances. One young lady feigns sickness and goes to the hospital. Scores of others follow suit and the hospital is crowded and his medical advice is needed. Helen gets the appointment. Meeting Jack they forget the old quarrel and when they retire to the hall and are seen in embrace and overjoyed, there is a sudden convalescence of the invalids. Jack plays a practical joke on the invalids and they are soon off and away.

NEGRO OBJECTIONABLE.

Howard, on Canadian Olympic Team, Kicks Up Fuss.

London, June 28.—J. A. Howard, the negro member of the Canadian Olympic team, the announcement of whose dismissal on the charge of insubordination was made by the team's coach, W. A. Knox, on Wednesday, was officially reinstated today.

J. G. Merrick, secretary of the Canadian committee, who accompanied the team, says that Howard became such a nuisance to the team that it was decided to send him back. Upon promising to place himself absolutely under the coach's orders and not to interfere with other members of the team, it had been agreed to give him another chance. The team leaves for Stockholm tomorrow.

MOTHERHOOD SUGGESTIONS

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman has had some medical treatment at such times, but the proper approach to the experience with an organism untried for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special price write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Dr. P. P. Caisey was able to leave the James Walker Memorial Hospital yesterday morning, following an operation which was performed about two weeks ago. He is at Mrs. Annie Northrop's cottage for the Summer.

Mrs. Chas. N. Evans charmingly entertained at a card party at her cottage on the beach yesterday morning in compliment to several of her friends. Bridge was played at four tables and the morning proved one of rare enjoyment for all the guests. A delicious luncheon was served at the conclusion of the party.

The old volunteer fire department of Cedarworn, Ga., which is maintained now as a social organization, has selected the Oceanic Hotel, as the place for their annual outing this year. They will arrive, some 50 strong, on July 29th, for a stay of 10 or 15 days. Members of the organization and their families have visited the beach for several seasons and will be extended a warm welcome upon their return this year.

Mr. D. R. Foster and party, from Wilmington, went outside trolling yesterday morning in the launch Swanee, Capt. Salter, and had fairly good luck. Mr. H. S. Leard, traveling passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line, Mr. F. A. Fetter, Jr., local commercial agent of the same road, and Mr. J. A. Fountain, of Wrightsville, had a pleasant trip outside yesterday in the yacht Edwin. Both parties were out from the Oceanic Hotel.

WRIGHTSVILLE

The arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday included the following: J. J. Woodside, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Simpson, Miss Isabelle Simpson, Wm. A. Simpson, John J. Simpson, Jr., Claude Harris, Atlanta; S. Rothschild, and Harry A. Brinkley, New York; B. H. Carter, Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hart, Mrs. J. H. Whitten, baby and Mrs. E. Rose, of the Prince of Wales railroad system; Paul Barnes, son of Mr. J. Lee Barnes, proprietor of the Hotel Majestic and Aragon.

Mr. Jesse N. Couch, the popular manager of the Oceanic Hotel, returned yesterday from a business trip to Atlanta, Ga., his home, where for a number of years he has been manager of the Majestic and Aragon hotels. Mr. Couch said that the weather has been unusually cool in Atlanta this Summer and as yet not a great many people have left the city for the resorts, which explains why so few Atlanta people have arrived at Wrightsville. However, the cool weather is not likely to continue long and Mr. Couch expects a large crowd from Atlanta next week and indications are that there will be a steady stream of guests from that city from then until the close of the season. Eighty-five persons arrived yesterday from Atlanta and other points in Georgia. Wrightsville Beach has lost none of its charms for the Atlanta people, who have only been waiting for Summer-time weather to come.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Seashore Hotel included the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Craven, Siler City; P. W. Davis, Elizabeth City; J. E. Collins and C. Austin, Charlotte; G. C. Thornton, Clinton; Geo. D. Webster, Asheville; Mrs. S. L. Lovelace and son, Tacoma, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Smith and children, Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. King, Charlotte; Mrs. Robt. Stahl and little daughter and Mrs. H. G. Truitt, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. M. McKinnon, Misses Ethel and Annie Johnson, Red Springs.

One of the most delightful social events of the season at Wrightsville Beach was the supper and moonlight sail given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Broyles, of Atlanta, in honor of their daughters and a number of other young ladies from the Georgia capital, all guests at the Seashore Hotel. An elaborate course supper was served in the Seashore Hotel cafe, following which a delightful moonlight sail on the Bank's Channel in the sharpie Virginia May, Capt. Wells, was enjoyed. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Broyles, Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Those in the party were Misses Louis Broyles, Josephine Mobley, Helen McCarty, Francis Broyles, Harriet McCullough, Dorothy High and Rosalie Davis, of Atlanta; Harriet Benedict and Sarah O'Farrell, of Athens, Ga.; Sarah King, of Columbia, S. WILL SETTLE GREGG CASE

City of Wilmington and Mr. Woolvin Will Pay Amount of Judgment

The case of Mrs. Susan M. Gregg, admx., vs. the City of Wilmington and Mr. James P. Woolvin will not go to Supreme Court for the second time, the defendants having decided to pay the plaintiff the amount of the judgment given at the last term of Superior Court and withdraw the appeal. This will probably be done this morning, when the case will be closed. The plaintiff was awarded a verdict of $5,000 damages for the death of her husband, who was killed when a pile of brick fell upon him in front of the new Woolvin building, on Princess street, three or four years ago. The verdict was to the effect that both the City of Wilmington and Mr. Woolvin were responsible for the manner in which the brick were piled. This was the second time a verdict had been returned against the defendants. Counsel for Mr. Woolvin announced their willingness to pay one-half of the amount of the verdict if the city would pay the other half. The proposition was rejected by counsel for the city and notice of appeal to Supreme Court was given.

During the last few days negotiations were re-opened looking to an adjustment of the case. It was announced yesterday that Mr. Woolvin would pay $2,500 and the city and that the city had agreed to pay the remaining $2,500. A check covering Mr. Woolvin's portion was given to the Clerk of Superior Court yesterday. A voucher covering the city's part has been made out and is awaiting the signatures of Councilman M. G. Tiencken and Mayor Smith.

The plaintiff is represented by Rountree & Carr and J. D. Bellamy & Son. City Attorney Herbert McClammy and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan appear for the city, while A. G. Ricard and Robt. Ruark, Esqs., represent Mr. Woolvin.

KILLING AT ROWLAND.

Negro Shot to Death by Mr. Grady McCormick.—Inquest. (Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., June 28.—Coroner Rancke was called to Rowland this morning to hold an inquest over the remains of Bud Monroe, colored, who was shot and killed at that place last night by Mr. Grady McCormick. Mr. Rancke states that the facts were hard to secure, as only one witness seemed to know anything about the case, but the trouble was about a dog. Mr. McCormick gave $500 bond for his appearance at court here next week. His plea will be self defense. The negro bore the reputation of being a desperate character, having figured in court frequently.

COTTON MARKET WAS QUIET

Developments With Reference to July Contracts Attracted Great Attention—Opening Steady and Higher.

New York, June 28.—Developments with reference to July contracts appeared to attract more attention than any other feature in the cotton market today and general business was quiet with the close steady, not unchanged to four points higher, and generally 2 to 4 points higher.

The opening was steady at an advance of 3 points to a decline of 1 point. It was estimated that July notices representing about 45,000 bales of cotton were circulating in the street but a couple of prominent brokers appeared around the ring who appeared willing to take all the July offered and the market later in the afternoon moved and the market reacted to about the closing figures of last night under favorable crop reports and some local pressure. But the firmness of July, once the notices were out of the way, operated against any general selling and the market later in the afternoon rallied on covering for over the week-end. A private condition report issued by a well known local authority at midday made the condition 82.9 per cent, comparing with the official 10-year average of 80.7 per cent, and with a condition of 80.7 per cent last month, caused some scattered realizing.

Receipts at the ports today 2,190 bales against 2,038 last week and 4,896 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 522 against 1,016 last year and at Galveston 964 against 177 last year, and at Houston 335 against 409 last year.
